FOREWORD

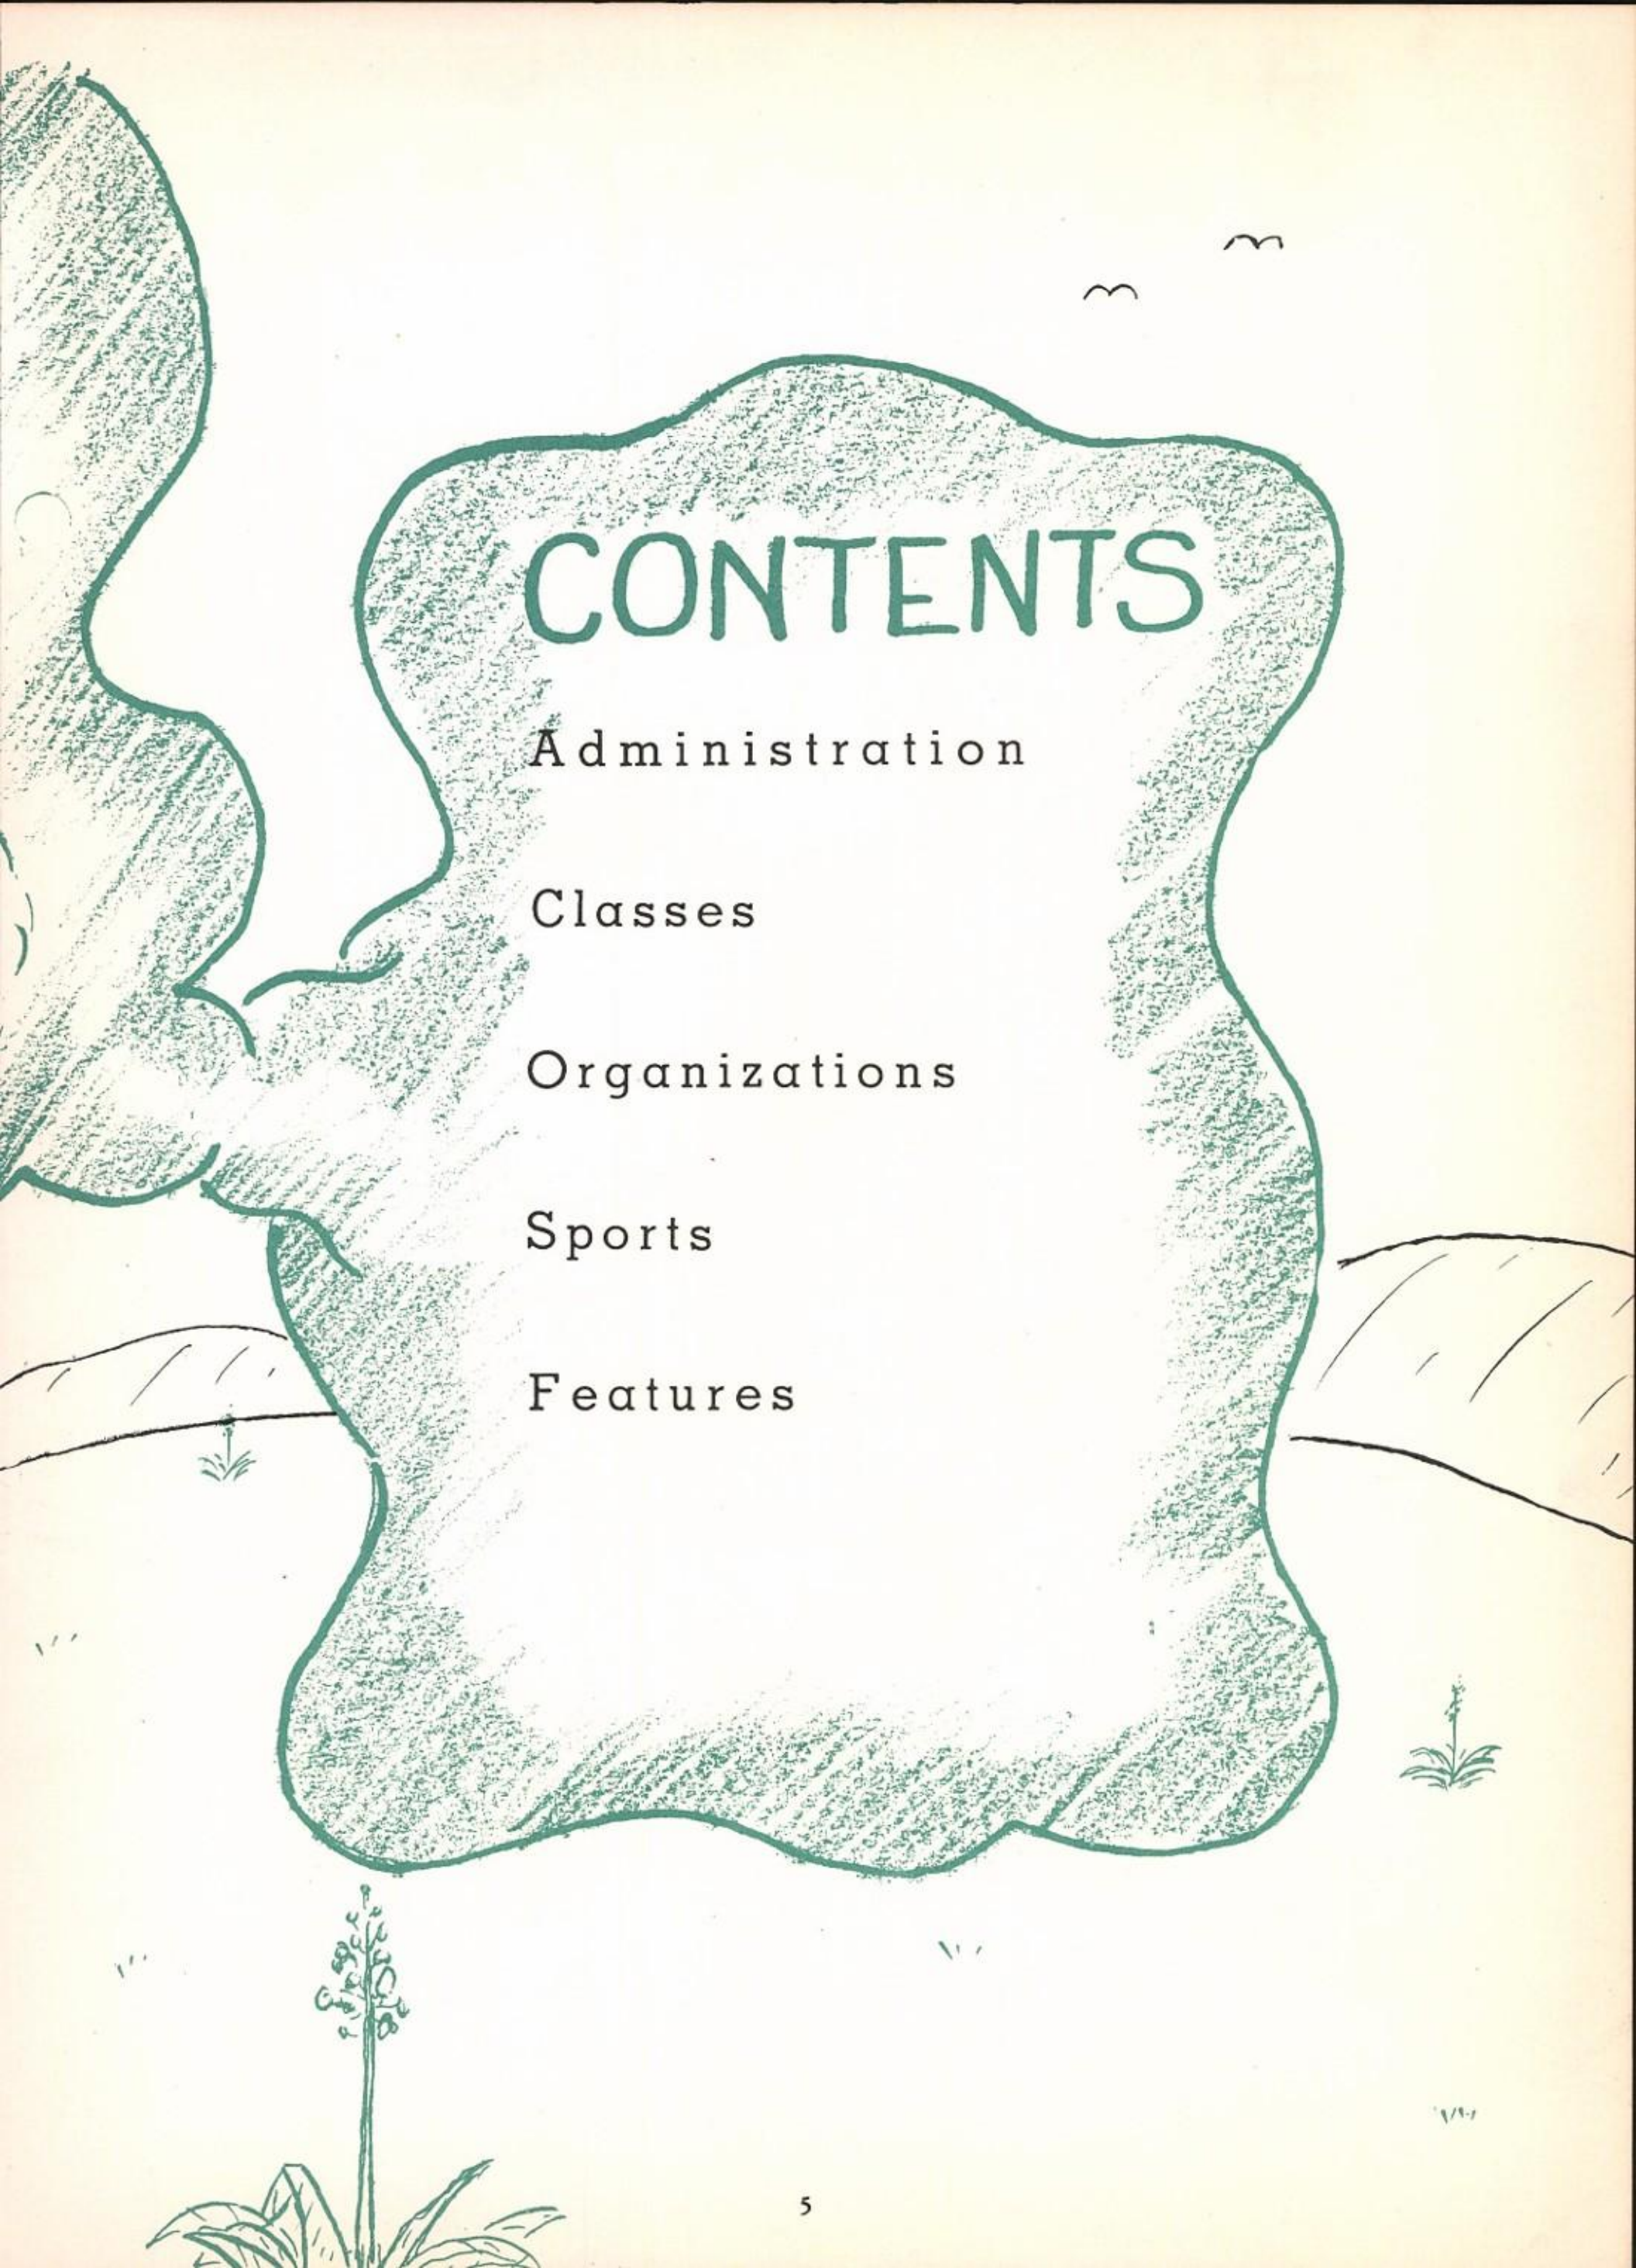

Hello there!

Let me introduce myself to you students. I am the conductor of the "Tivy Special". Since the beginning of Tivy High School, I've been making daily trips past the campus of your school.

In fact, I feel that I'm almost a part of Tivy, too. Each morning through the long school months, you've paused in your classes as the shrill whistle of my train interrupted your studies. That whistle and the roar of rumbling cars have become a familiar part in the morning routine. Even the tracks have had a part in your school life. Think of the countless students who trudged to and from Tivy along them.

In all these years I've had an opportunity to keep up with your many activities. So climb aboard the "Tivy Special" now and journey with me along the tracks of memories in this book of your 1952 school year.

In Memoriam

MARTHA JO MURPHY

She was generous in her heart and mind;
And noble in her acts and deeds;
The best in others she sought to find;
And sought the path where kindness leads.
--Floyd Harry

In Appreciation

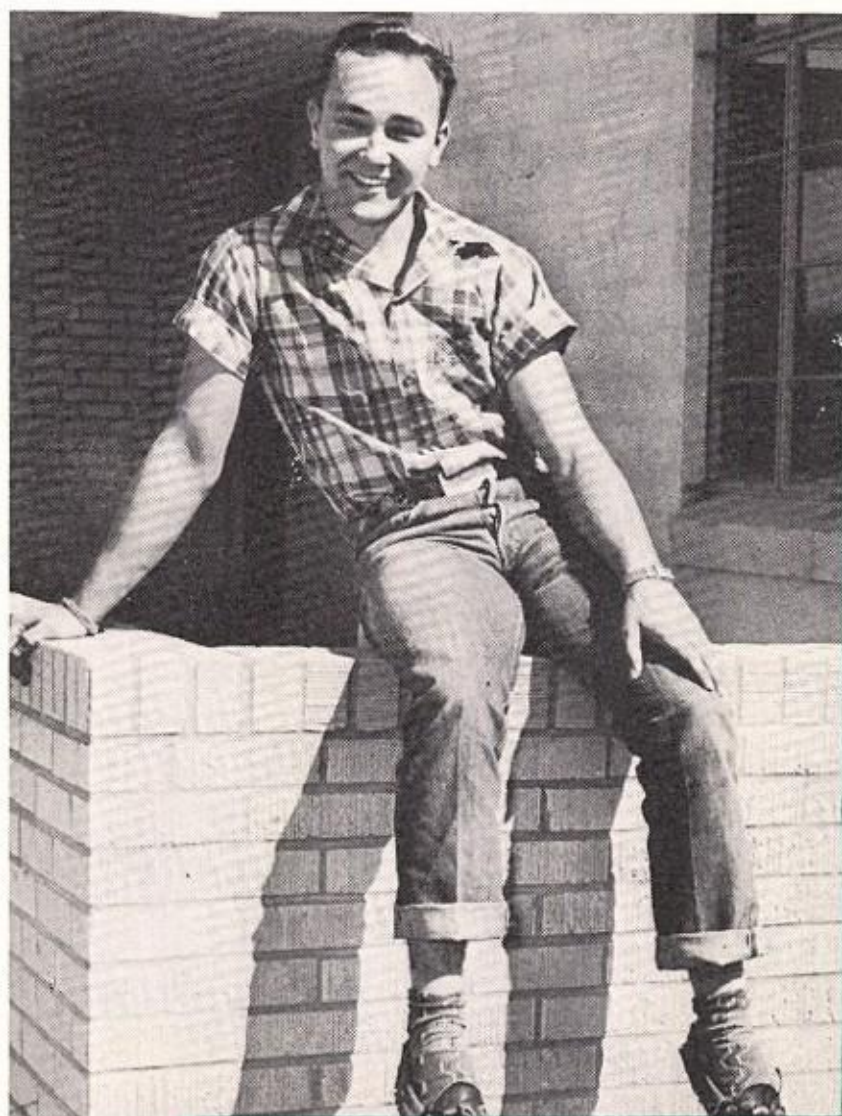

One can hardly think of Tivy without thinking of MRS. FLORENCE WEISS, She has long been a part of our school; first as a student, then as a teacher and parent, and now as counselor. In all these roles of service to Tivy she has been the inspiration and ideal of the countless young people who have come to her for friendship, encouragement, and guidance. Because she takes a personal and sympathetic interest in each student and teacher, she is never too busy to discuss their problems--whether they may be of a vocational, social, or romantic nature. Because of her profound influence and sincere interest in us, the 1952 Antler Staff appreciatively dedicates this book to Mrs. Weiss.

WHO'S WHO

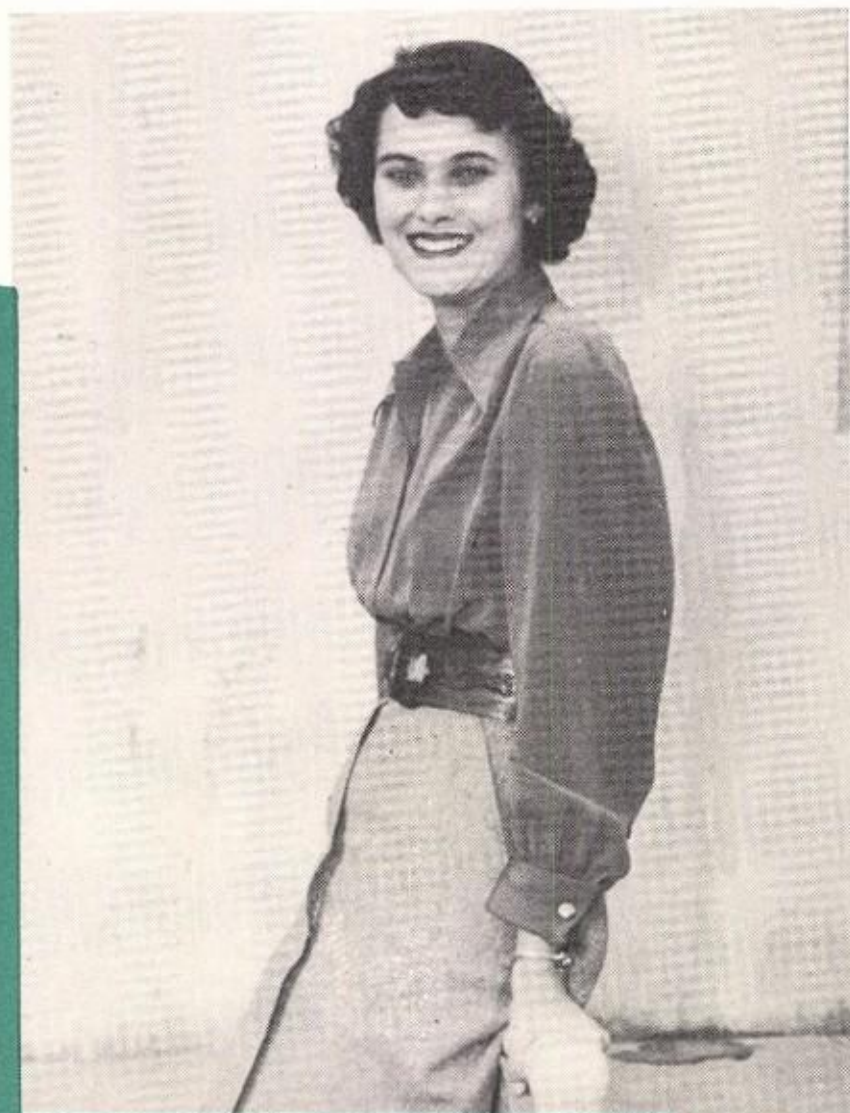

MARGARET DEARMORE has earned the highest honor awarded at Tivy, Student of the Year, Because she received the greatest number of points for honors during the school year. She is recognized by the students of Tivy as one of their most able leaders. She was elected most beautiful by the student body, and selected sweetheart of both the football team and F.F.A. She is a cheerleader, secretary of the Senior class, and had the leading role in the Senior play. Margaret is also reporter of the G.A.A. and has earned two letters in tennis.

As editor of the Tatler, vice-president of N.H.S., and member of the Student Council, DYNAMITE HOGGETT has done his share in service to the school. He is treasurer of the Senior Class, reporter of the F.F.A., and a member of the cast of "One Foot in Heaven". He was chosen as Tivy's most versatile boy.

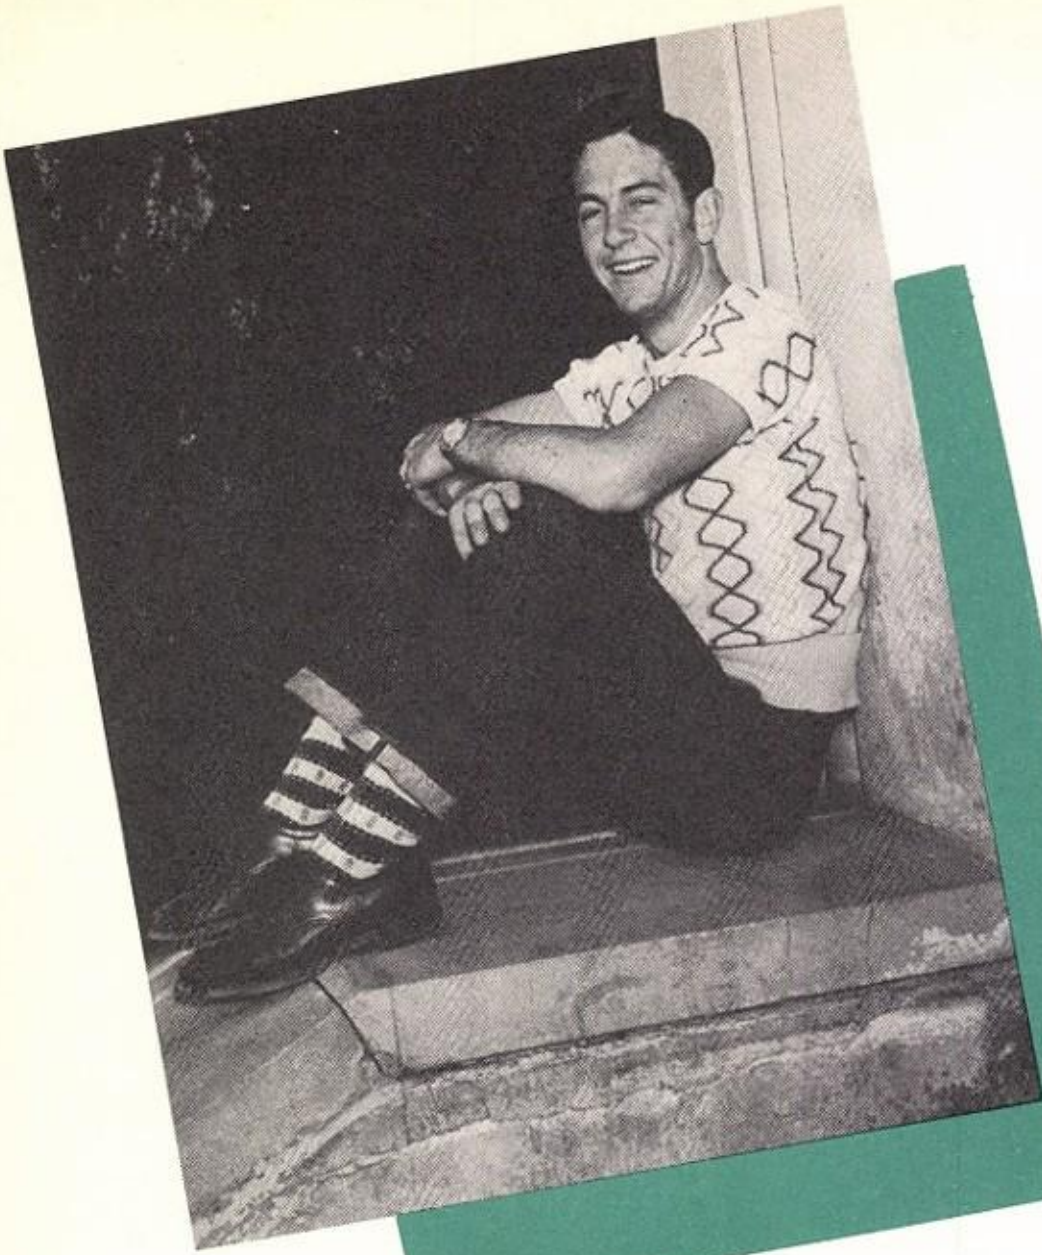

WHO'S WHO

WAYNE ARCHER'S active interest in Tivy has won him a Who's Who membership. As president of the Student Council, he is recognized by his qualities of leadership. Wayne is art editor of the Antler, assistant quartermaster of the band, and a member of N. H. S. He also had the lead in the Senior Play.

One of the busiest girls in school is BETH TAYLOR. She has quite a job as business manager of the Antler. Besides this, she is secretary of N. H. S., secretary of the Student Council, librarian of the band, a member of the Senior Play cast, and business manager of the play.

WHO'S WHO

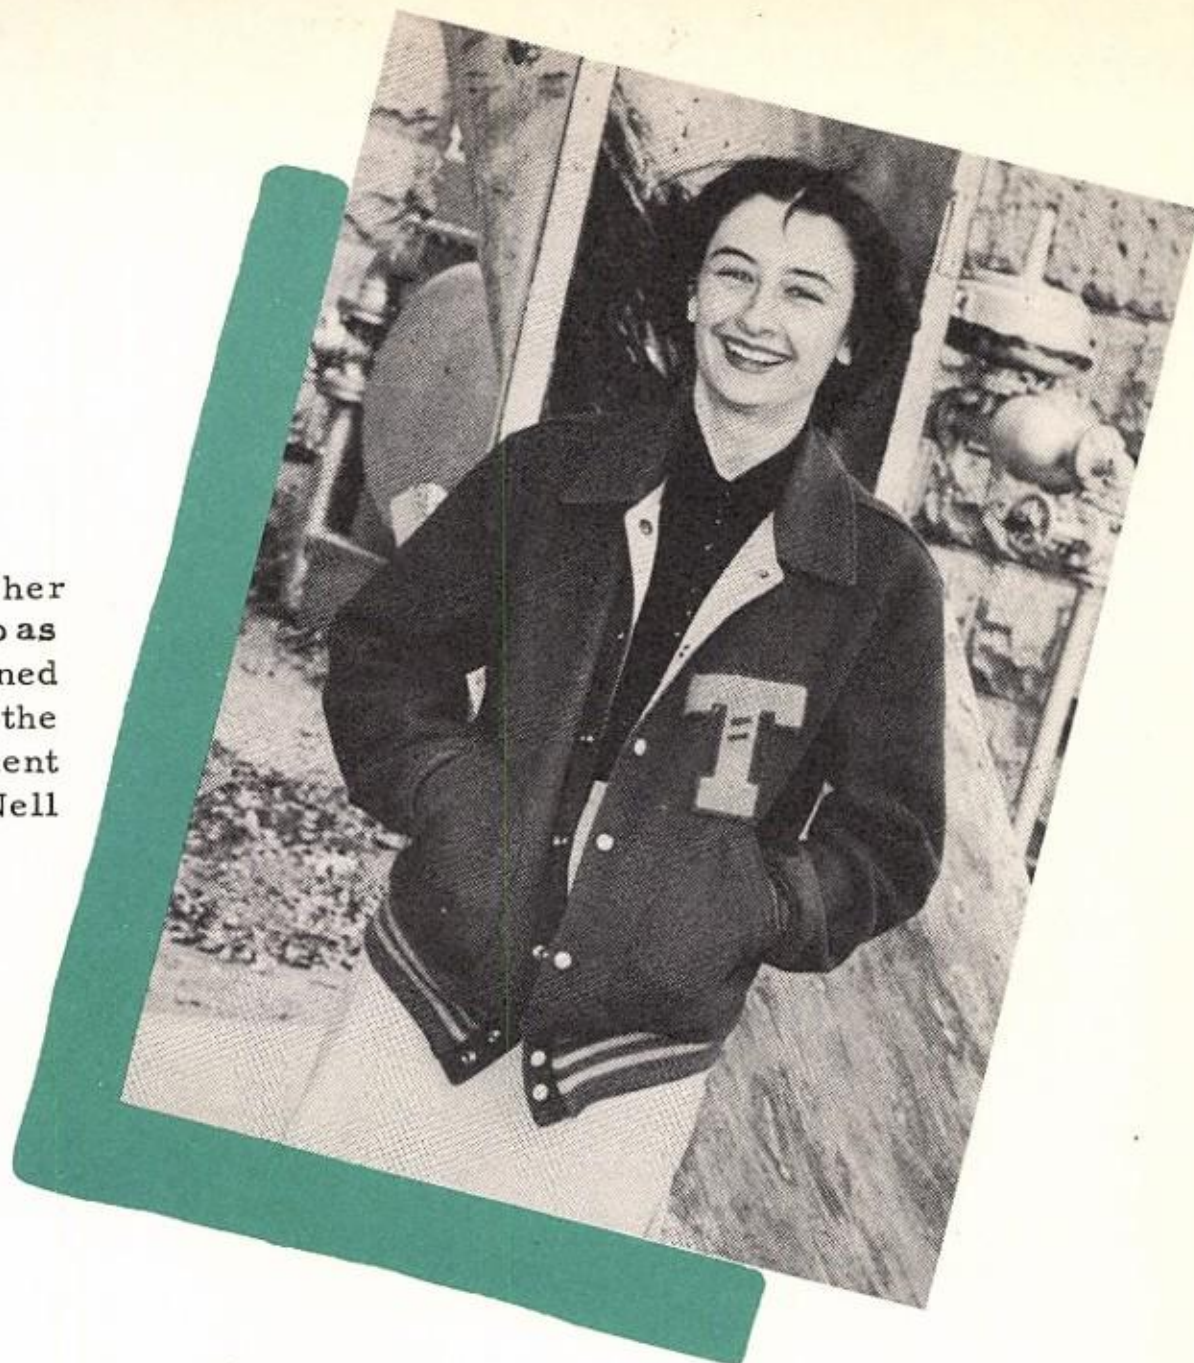

WALTER SCHELLHASE, co-captain of the football team, has shown outstanding playing on the field. Being a well-known figure around the campus, he is vice-president of the "T" Association, and has a letter in track. He was elected F.H.A. sweetheart and holds the office of reporter in F.H.A. He is a member of the Senior Play, "One Foot in Heaven".

JUNE KIEFERs well known around Tivy as editor of the Antler. In addition to this duty, she is a member of the G. A. A. and N. H. S. She has earned two letters in tennis, and is a member of the band. She is also a member of the Senior play cast.

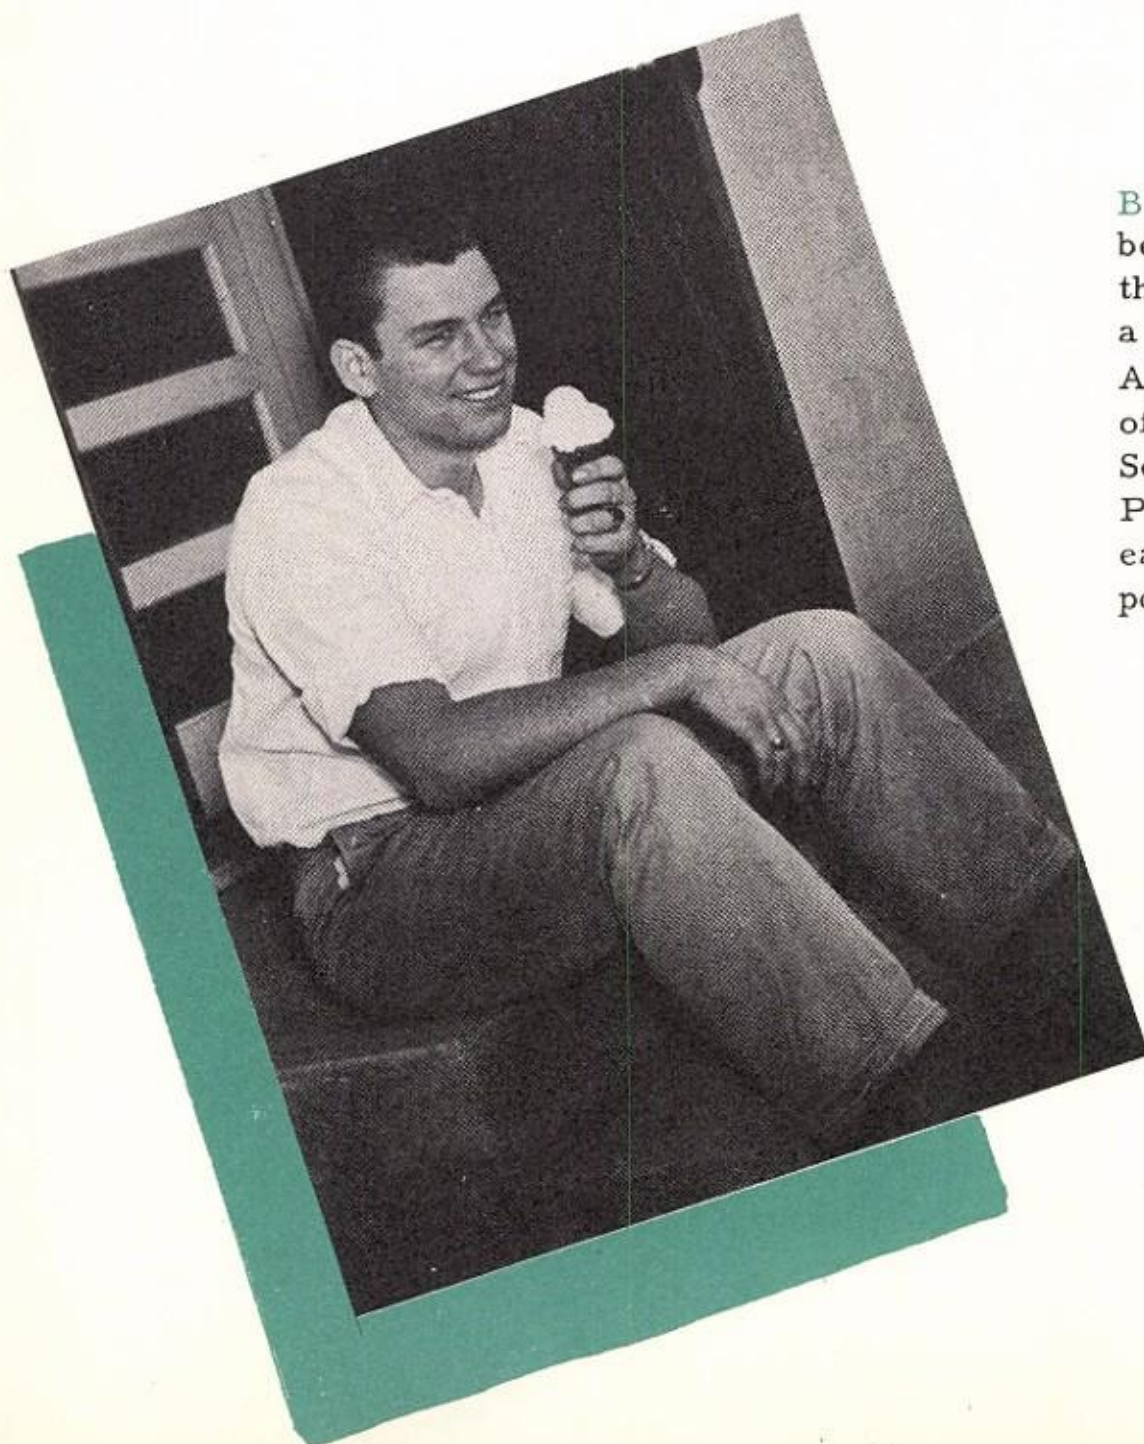

WHO'S WHO

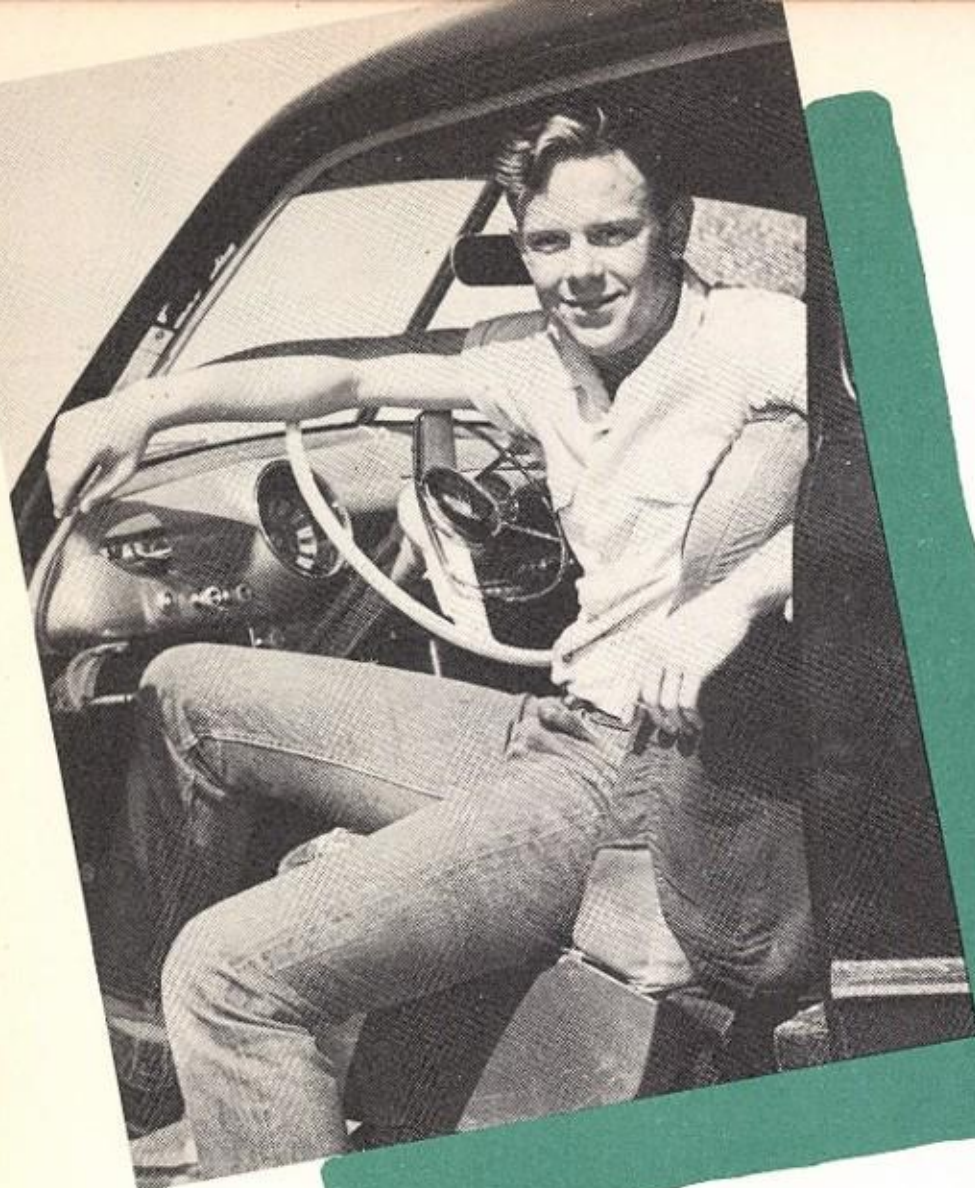

MARY NELL BURNS has proved her capability and qualities of leadership as head cheerleader. She has also earned a letter in tennis and is reporter of the Student Council. Serving as president of both G. A. A. and F. H. A., Mary Nell is called on for many duties.

BURLEIGH ARNECKE, one of Tivy's best athletes, has earned much fame through his honors in football, including a position on the All-District team and All-State AAA team. He is president of the "T" Association, reporter of the Senior Class and a member of the Senior Play cast. His friendly personality has earned him the honor of Tivy's most popular boy.

WHO'S WHO

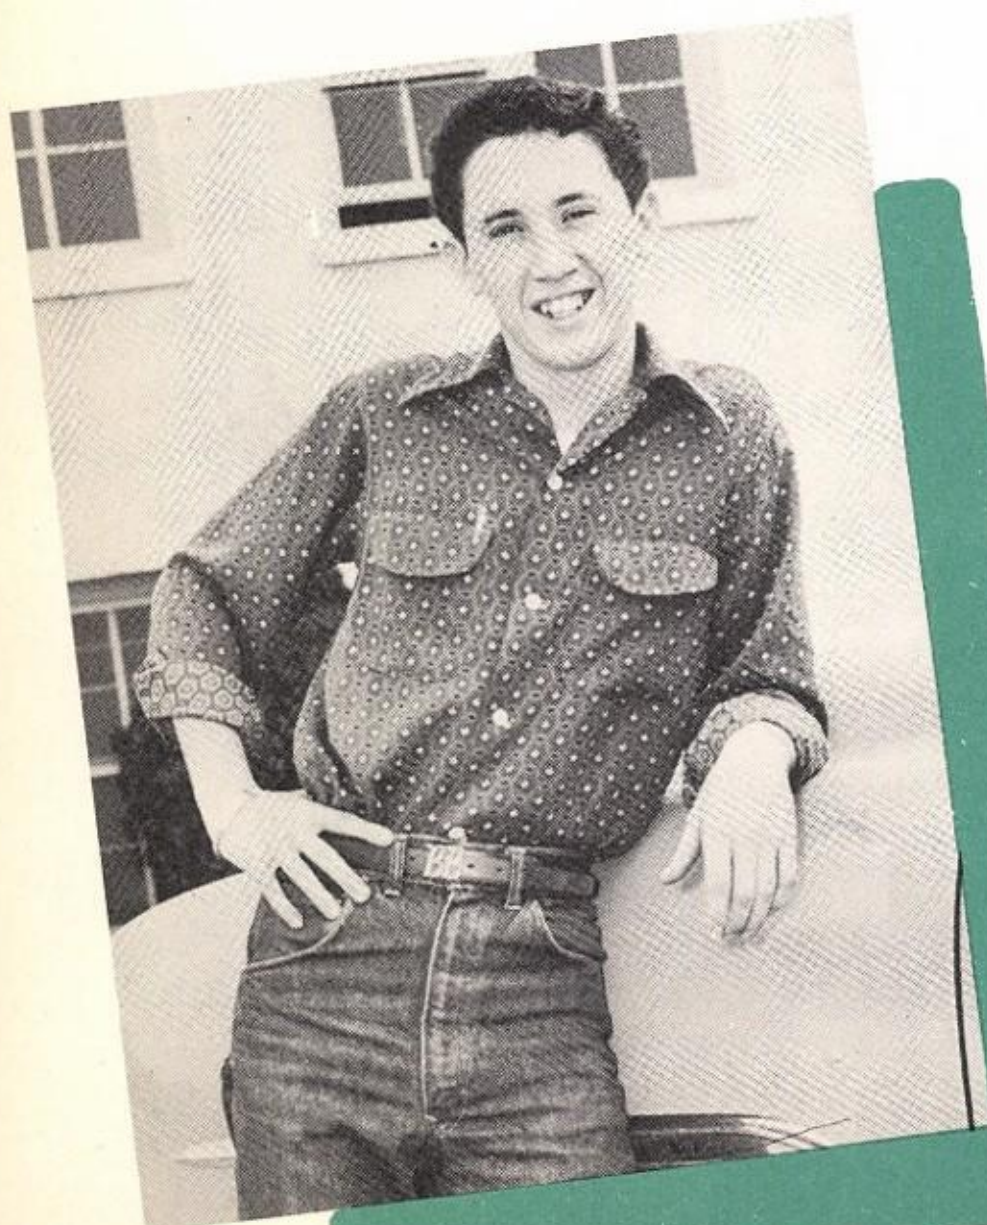

Among the students outstanding in F.F.A. work is J. M. AULD. He is State Vice-president of F.F.A. In addition to this, J. M. is president of N.H.S., and has lettered in both basketball and football.

Tivy's most versatile girl, KATIE HAMILTON truly lives up to this title. Katie is flagbearer of the Antlerettes, reporter of the N. H. S., secretary of G. A. A., and she has earned two letters in tennis. Katie also performed in "One Foot in Heaven".

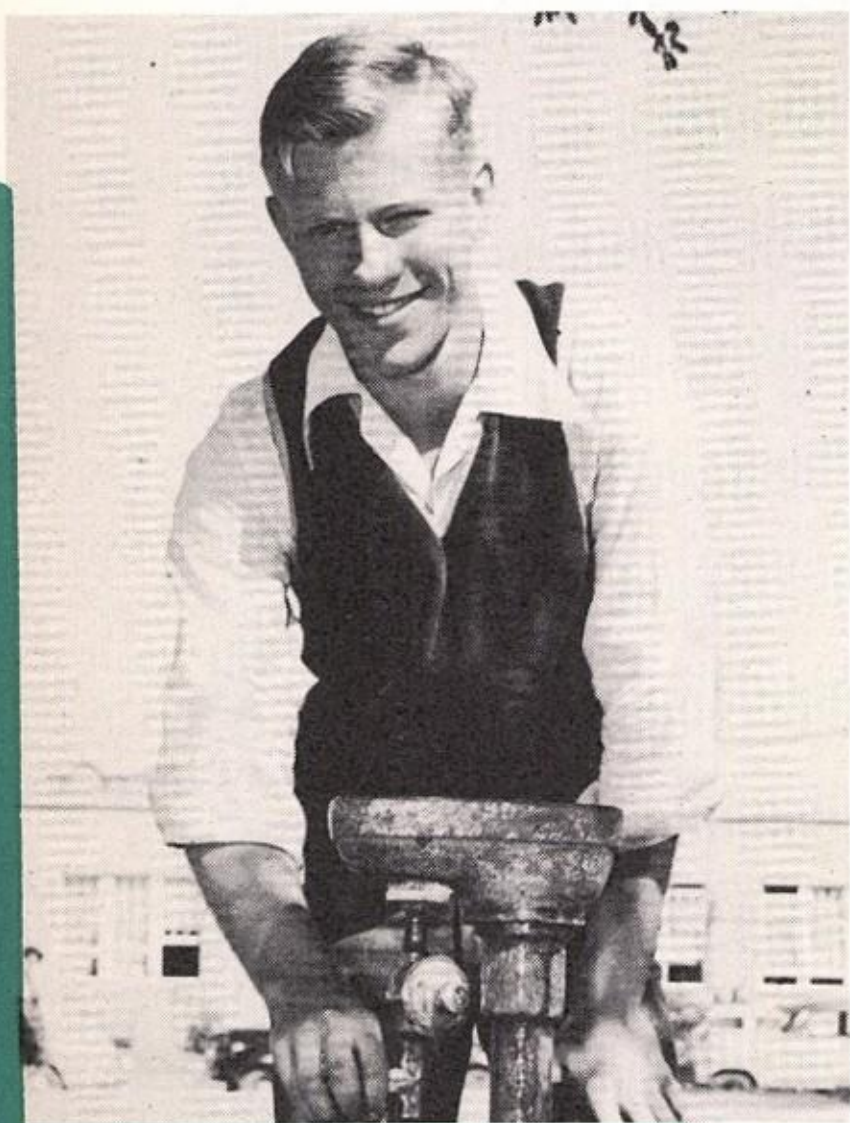

Junior class president, BILLY BARLOW also serves Tivy as vice-president of the Student Council. Billy was selected as the most popular boy of the Junior class, and displayed a natural talent for acting in the Junior Play, "Men Are Like Streetcars".

WHO'S WHO

As a cheerleader, MAURICE STOVALL is a very active student at Tivy. She is a member of the G.A.A., and has earned one letter in tennis. Maurice is assistant photographer of the Antler Staff, and was chosen most beautiful girl by the Junior class.

PHILIP FURMAN, Sophomore class president, has already launched a busy career of activities at Tivy. He received a letter for football and was selected by his class as most versatile boy. Philip also serves as a member of the Student Council.

BETTY WILDMAN is one of Tivy's most outstanding sophomores. She is secretary of her class, corresponding secretary of the Student Council, and a member of the Antler Staff. In addition, she is pianist of the F.H.A., and was elected most beautiful in her class. This versatility has entitled her to a place in Who's Who.

PRINCIPALS

FACULTY

E. L. WILDMAN, SUPERINTENDENT

This marks Mr. E. L. Wildman's fourth year as Superintendent of Tivy High School.

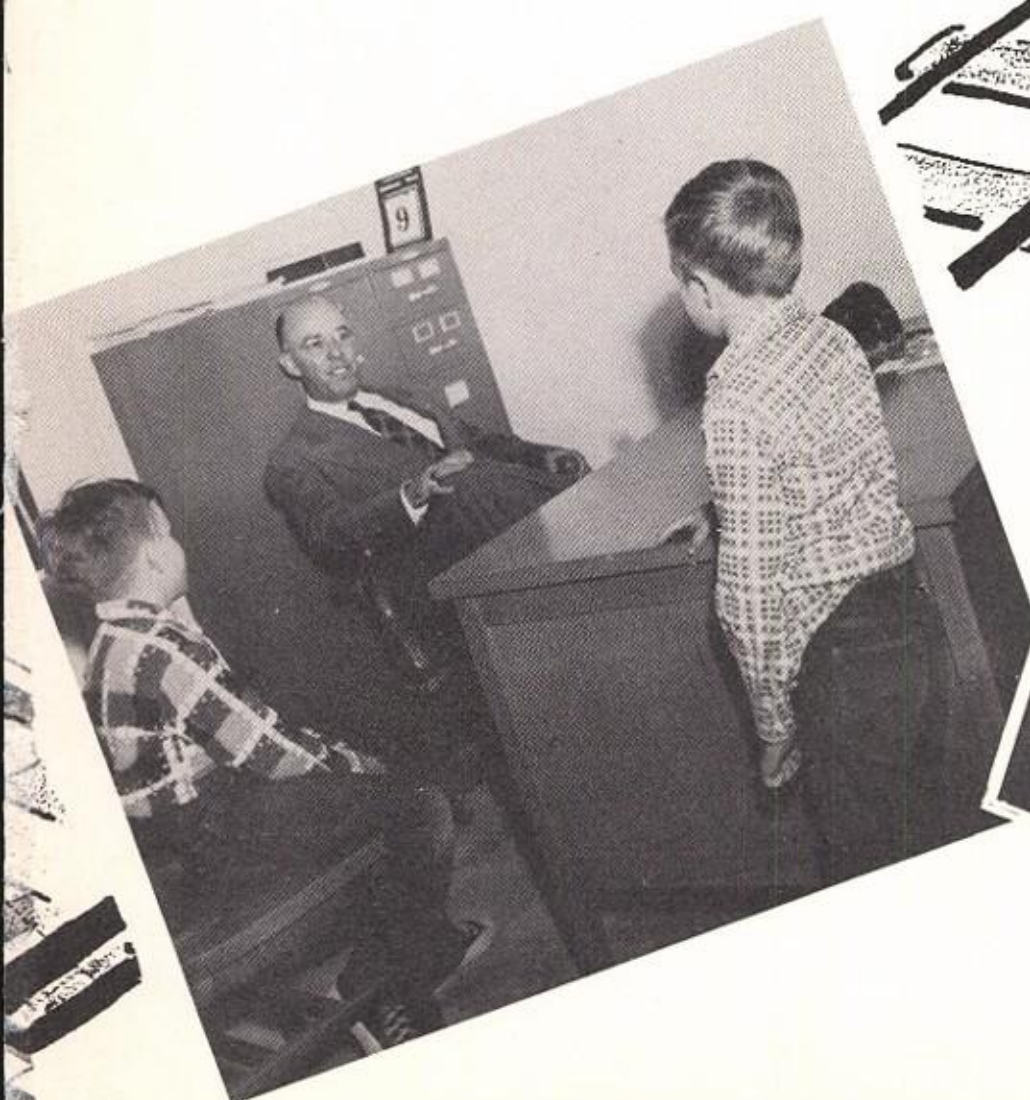

He has used unsparingly his time and energy in helping Tivy progress. Under his leadership Tivy's curriculum has been broadened, and the physical plant has been improved to meet the needs of a growing student body.

Mr. Wildman holds B.S. and M.A. degrees from Southwest Texas College in San Marcos. He has also studied at the University of Texas.

Away from school Mr. Wildman's interests include golf and many community activities.

Mrs. Wiess, Student Council sponsor, starts for home as another busy day ends.

With American Education Week ahead, Mrs. Weiss and a group of Student Council members make plans for the coming activities.

The supplementary council, consisting of organization officers, meets periodically with the Student Council.

The teachers council, consisting of Mrs. Mary Willson, Mr. John Wagner, Mr. John Sandidge, Mrs. Zelma Hardy, Mrs. Mary DeBault have a conference in the business office.

J.M. Auld, president, possesses the qualities, scholarship, leadership, and service, required to be a leader in N. H. S.

National Honor Society officers, Katherine Schwarz, treasurer; Dynamite Hoggett, vice-president; Katie Hamilton, reporter; and Beth Taylor, secretary; are amused over items in the news.

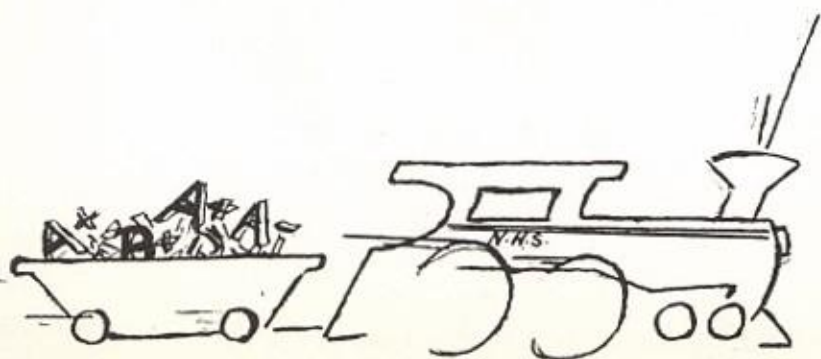

Members gather in the hall to take orders for singing valentines. This is one of the organization's projects during the year.

After a N. H. S. meeting other members group around the piano for a little entertainment.

Mrs. DeBault, sponsor, looks over the names of candidates for N. H. S.

ANTLER

Miss Lila Barrett, sponsor, discusses with the staff do's and don'ts in year book make-up.

June Kiefer, editor, talks with the photographer about the schedule of pictures to be taken for the next deadline.

Class editors, Wayne Archer, Becky Thomas, Lucy Nance and Betty Wildman, spend many hours drawing layouts for their class sections.

Jo Ann Johnson, typist, laughingly files a letter, while Betty Reinhard, ass't. bus. mgr. checks over the pledge-cards.

Beth Taylor, business manager, spends long hours working on the account book.

The staff proudly admires the silver plaque won by the 1951 Antler at the THSPA convention.

Editor Dynamite Hoggett types an editorial as one of his many duties in putting out the newspaper.

Tatler members discuss the All Texas Honor Rating certificate they recieved at the THSPA convention. This is the first year that the Tatler has had a separate publication.

The Tatler staff members read and compare other high school newspapers.

Maurice Stovall was crowned Queen of Western Week sponsored by the Tatler staff. During the week of October 15-20th, the school carried out the Western theme; a Western dance climaxed this occasion.

Rolland McLean and Buddy Snow, sports' editors, work on copy for the next issue, while bus. mgr., Allen Aldous, looks on.

Miss Lila Barrett, sponsor of the Tatler, reads copy before the paper goes to press.

Joyce Ward, Jerry Shelton, Jane Ann McCall and Beverly Sample distribute the Tatlers in the students' lockers.

Memories

Hi! Here I am again. This time to say goodbye. You seniors are now one step closer towards your goal in life. A new phase of your life is beginning, and the future may seem uncertain. Perhaps you will enter college, secure a job, or establish a home and family.

Because I've observed your school days on my daily trips past your campus, I'll always have a place for you, Tivy students, in my heart.

The first day of school was confusing with all the books, schedules, and new and old faces. It wasn't long before you were back in your old habit of 8:30 classes.

The excitement and spirit of football season soon spread through the school. The laughter when we won, the tears when we lost, were shared by all. The trips out of town were fun, even though the journeys home were usually long and weary.

Then came the day when all the seniors, with a twinkle in their eyes, tried to shake hands with everybody in school. Yes, the senior rings had finally arrived.

On November 17th, all the Daisy Maes captured their Lil' Abners and footed all the expenses at the Sadie Hawkins dance.

December 13th and 14th were big nights for the juniors when they presented their play, "MEN ARE LIKE STREETCARS".

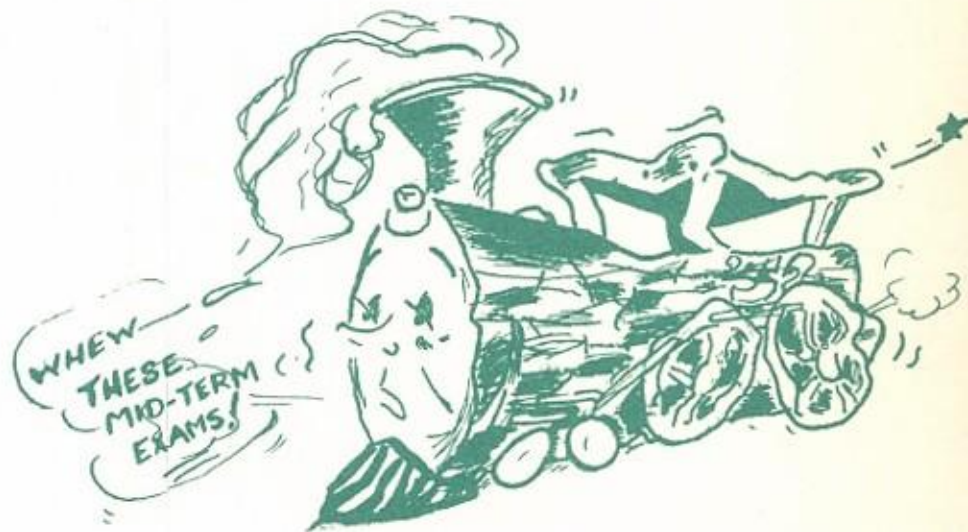

December 17th was the date of the Christmas formal. The gym was all aglow with beautiful decorations and everyone danced to the music of the Highlanders. The high point of the evening was the presentation of the favorites.

Inevitable, mid-term exam time came right after the fun of Christmas holidays. The teachers and students alike suffered through reviews, tests, and grades. Basketball season was in full swing by then, and the gym resounded with cheers for the Antlers. The end of the season found the seniors soundly beating the faculty team by four points.

As the days became warm and balmy, tennis enthusiasts and track team members spent afternoons practicing.

Graduation was then in sight, and the seniors began their many final activities. They proudly presented their play, "ONE FOOT IN HEAVEN," on March 13th and 14th.

In wishing that every senior would find his own pot of gold, the rainbow theme was carried out at the banquet given by the juniors in honor of them.

Senior day was one of the biggest days for the graduating class. The sunrise service at Tivy mountain, the assembly program with the reading of the will, history, and prophecy, and the trip to Landa Park will long be remembered by all who attended.

The few remaining days before graduation were devoted to the fullest enjoyment of social activities and graduation ceremonies, which every high school graduate will look back upon fondly in his memories.
